

HOW TO REDUCE THE ENVIRONMENTAL IMPACT OF WORMING

Avoid unnecessary treatment by using a test-led approach to parasite control

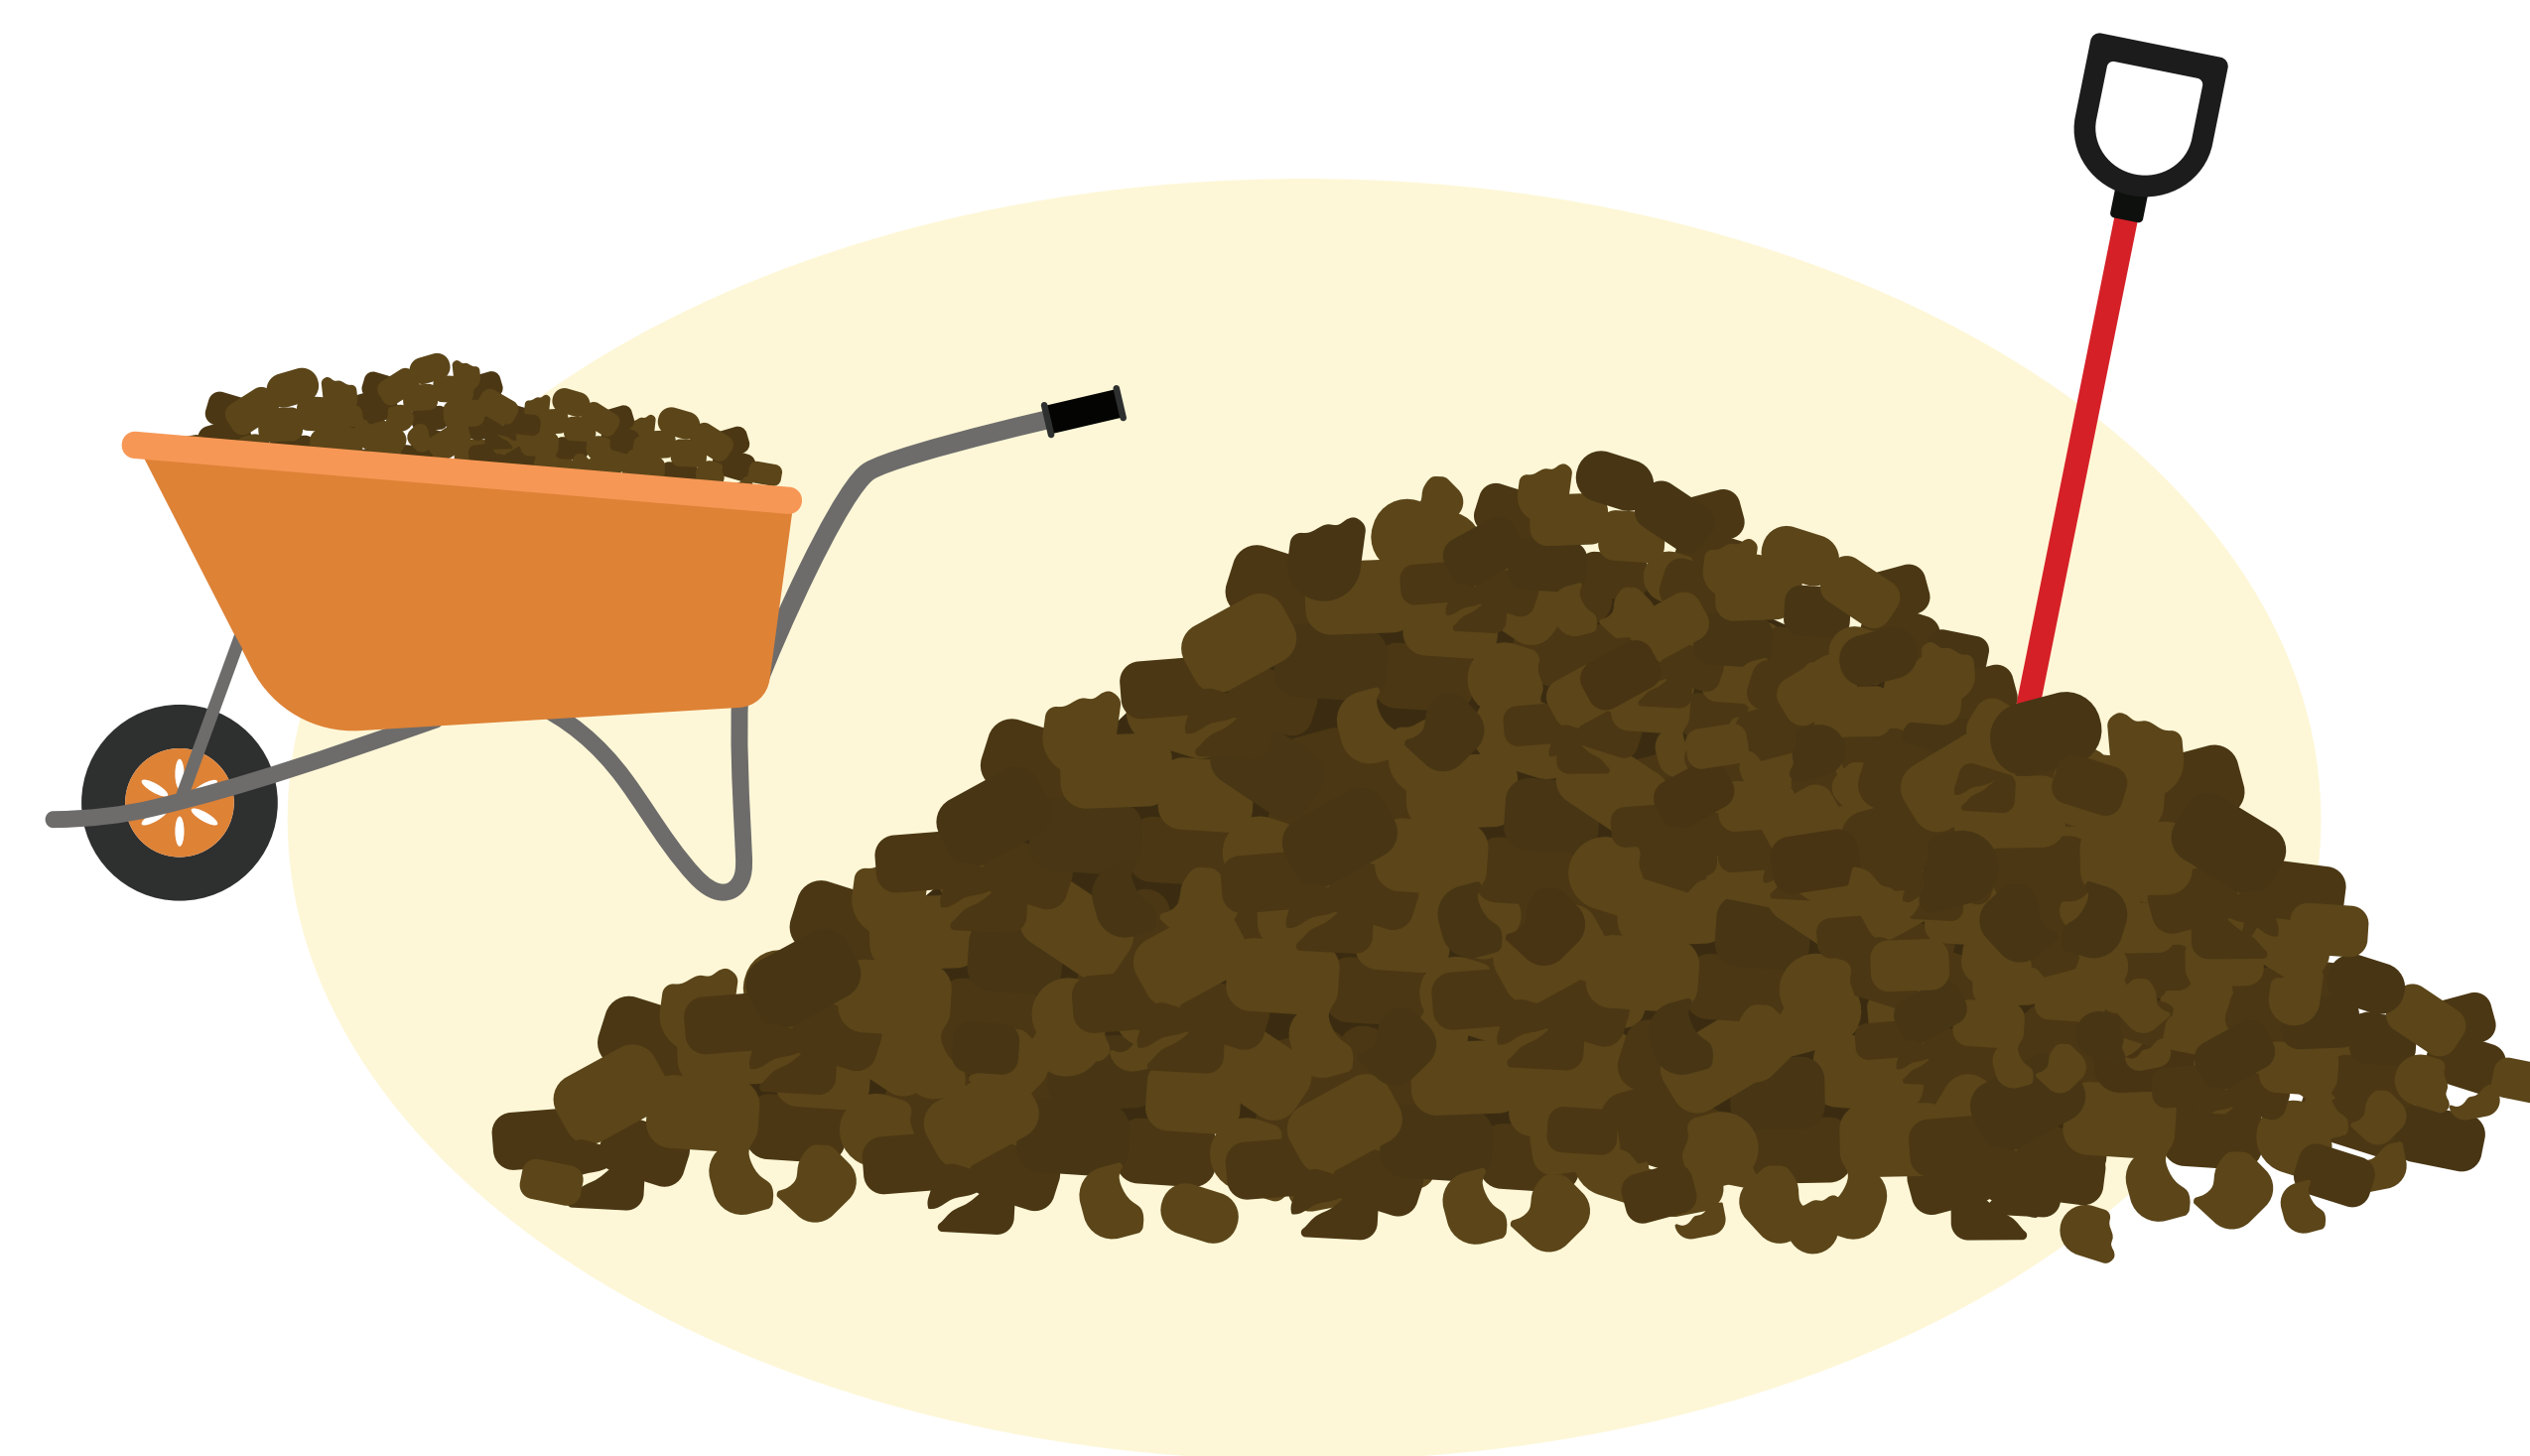

Stable your horse or use a smaller paddock during peak excretion times

Prevent access to watercourses for at least one week after treatment

Poo-pick at least once a day to remove contaminated droppings

Site muck heaps away from grazing and watercourses to limit contamination

Don't spread contaminated manure that hasn't been properly composted